ASSIGNMENT TO EXPEDITED CASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM AND GENERAL PRE-TRIAL ORDER

This case has been placed on the Expedited Case Management System which is designed to dispose of a case within 12 months after filing.

OBJECTION TO INCLUSION IN SYSTEM

If a party to this cause believes that the cause is extremely complex or will involve unique problems and will be impossible to prepare for trial within the time frame of the system, he may, within 40 days after the date of this order, or if the party has not been served at the date of this order, within 40 days after service, file a motion requesting that the cause not be included in the system and that the parties be allowed additional time to prepare the cause for trial. A motion filed later than the aforesaid 40 days will not be considered by the Court. Oral argument may be requested on an exclusion motion. If a cause is excluded from the system by the Court, a discovery schedule will be set by the Court after conference with the parties. If a case is so excluded the general pre-trial portion of this order will remain in effect unless specifically altered by the Court.

DISCOVERY

Unless the Court sets a shorter time, all pre-trial discovery shall be completed within 270 days after filing of the complaint unless party filing the Motion to Set and Certificate of Readiness requests an additional period of time, not to exceed 60 days, and certifies that all discovery will be concluded within that time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for good cause shown, the Court may permit, or the parties may agree, that additional discovery procedures be undertaken anytime prior to trial, so long as such discovery can be completed so as not to require a continuance of the trial setting.

MOTION TO SET AND CERTIFICATE OF READINESS

Counsel for the plaintiff shall, and counsel for any other party may, file a Motion to Set and Certificate of Readiness, which shall be filed not later than 270 days after the filing of the complaint. If such a motion is not filed by the 280th day, the Court will place the case marked "To Be Dismissed" on a disposition docket as near as possible to the 300th day and send notice of such to all parties. If a Motion to Set and Certificate of Readiness is not received by the Court prior to the disposition date, the case will be dismissed.

The Motion to Set and Certificate of Readiness will be in a form similar to that available of in the clerk's office and will contain the following information:

- (1) The date the complaint was filed;

- (2) That the issues in the case have been defined and joined;
- (3) That all discovery has been completed or will be completed within 60 days after the filing of the Certificate of Readiness;
- (4) That a jury trial has or has not been demanded;
- (5) The expected length of the trial expressed in hours and/or days;
- (6) A brief description of the plaintiff's claim;
- (7) The names, addresses and telephone numbers of the parties or their attorneys responsible for their litigation;
- (8) That the movant certifies that all expert witnesses expected to testify at trial have been disclosed to all parties, together with a summary of their opinions;
- (9) That the movant acknowledges his/her responsibility to make all documents, exhibits, and physical evidence, or copies thereof, expected to be used in the case in chief available to the other parties, not less than 21 days prior to trial, for inspection and copying;
- (10) That the movant certifies that he/she has read the pre-trial order, that he/she has complied with it to date and will comply with its requirements in the future.

The filing by the plaintiff of a Motion to Set and Certificate of Readiness constitutes the voluntary dismissal of all fictitious parties whose true names have not been substituted.

CONTROVERTING CERTIFICATE

Within 14 days after a Motion to Set and Certificate of Readiness has been filed, counsel for any other party may file a Controverting Certificate specifying the particular statements contained in the Certificate of Readiness to which objection is made, and the reasons therefore. Oral argument may be requested. The Court shall thereupon enter an order placing the case on the Active Calendar either immediately or, where good cause is shown, at a specified later date.

ACTIVE CALENDAR

Fourteen days after a Motion to Set and Certificate of Readiness is filed, if a Controverting Certificate has not been filed, the case shall be placed on the Active Calendar, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

SETTING FOR TRIAL

Unless specifically set by the Court, cases on the Active Calendar shall be set for trial generally in the same order as they came on the Active Calendar and as soon as possible. Preference shall be given to cases which by statute, rule or order of the Court are entitled to priority. Counsel shall be given at least sixty days notice of the trial date.

DELAY

When a case has been set for trial, no postponement of the trial will be considered by the Court except on a written motion substantially in the form previously approved by the Court. (Obtain from the Court a Request for Delay form.)
